ALDER STREET / SATURDAY 17 JULY

Night Market on Alder Street

An evening of food, records and small discoveries. Bring a friend and leave room for dessert.

This fictional neighborhood night market fills the pedestrian block between Pine and Alder. No tickets are required; individual stalls set their own prices.

17 JUL

17:00–22:00 · free entry

Time	Find	Where
17:00	Food Stalls Open	East end
18:30	Listening Session	Record tent
20:00	Sunset Set	Community stage

Make an Evening of It

Start at the community table, browse the makers and catch the sunset set. Seating is shared and the route is step-free.

Fictional event · No real booking or attendance service.

Come Prepared

Bring a reusable bottle. Water refill points are beside the information tent; quiet seating is at the library end of the block.

Weather Plan

If heavy rain is forecast, the event moves to Alder Hall. Check the information board before traveling.

Fictional Dazzler example / Apache-2.0 / Editable text and tables